"HOLINESS TO THE LORD."

PROSPECTUS

OF THE

MILLARD STAKE ACADEMY.

—:o:—

The undersigned, in connection with the Priesthood of this Stake of Zion, and with the approval of the First Presidency of the Church, intending to commence an educational institution under the above name, at Fillmore, conducted in the spirit of our holy religion, and as much as possible after the plan of the Brigham Young Academy, at Provo, call on the Saints of this and neighboring Stakes for a hearty co operation and support in this enterprise, that our youth may not only be taught the various branches of education, but also receive a training adequate with the responsibilities of their destiny. The plan of this new Academy, as far as developed at present is as follows:

—:o:—

CALENDAR.

I Term from November 2. 1885, until January 15, 1886.

(Christmas vacation from Dec. 24, until Jan. ~~15~~ 14, 1886.)

II Term from January 18, until March 12, 1886.

III Term from March 15, until June 7, 1886.

DEPARTMENTS.

PREPARATORY DEPARTMENT.

GRADE:—Fourth and Fifth Readers. Tuition $4.00.

STUDIES:—Theology Bible Synopsis, and Book of Mormon Sketches. Grammar:—with weekly compositions; Swinton's Language Lessons; Arithmetic:—Including Decimal Fractions according to Ray's New Practical Arithmetic; Reading;—Independent V Reader, Newspapers, Manuscripts, and recitative reading. Geography: Appleton's Standard Geography. Orthography:—According to ~~Swinton's~~ Walton's Word Book, second year's course. Penmanship: Spencerian Copy Books, Nos. 1-5. Drawing and Singing are optional. Each study is this department covers one year.

NOTE—Special provisions for young people not prepared to enter this department in full standing are made in all branches.

——:o:——

ADVANCED DEPARTMENT.

GRADE:—Elocution and ability to enter Percentage according to Ray's New Practical Arithmetic. Tuition, $5.00.

STUDIES:—Theology:Church History and Didactic Books of the New Testament, and Book of Mormon. Grammar:—with weekly compositions. Arithmetic:—According to Ray's New Practical Arithmetic from Percentage to Average inclusive. Elocution: Elementary drill according to Hamil's Science of Elocution. Geography:—According to ~~Appleton's~~ Houston's Physical Geography. U. S. History:—According to Anderson's New U. S. History. Penmanship:—Spencerian Copy Books, Nos. 6-12. Orthography:—Promiscuous exercises with definitions, rules in punctuation, and proof-reading.

NOTES:—No student can be excused from any regular study in the foregoing departments except on evidence of efficiency or through physical disability.

Vocal and instrumental music will be taught as soon as practicable.

No reduction on tuition for less than half a term will be made.

No refund is made on withdrawal, except in cases of protracted sickness, or calls on foreign missions; but substitutes for not less than half a term will be accepted.

——:o:——

SPECIAL ORGANIZATIONS.

THEOLOGICAL ORGANIZATION.

Opening and closing exercises every day with divine service.

Daily Theological class—recitations in every department.

Divine Service every Wednesday at 2:45 p.m.

DOMESTIC ORGANIZATION.

All students are subject to the domestic regulations in and out of school.

Profanity or obscenity in any form is strictly forbidden and may be punished with expulsion.

The use of tobacco, or of strong drink is not allowed.

Students shall not attend public or private parties without a written permit from the Principal.

When two or more students reside in one house, one of them will be appointed senior.

The students outside of Fillmore constitutes the Domestic Organization, and meet every alternate Thursday at 4 p. m. for report.

Students are required not to be away from home after regulation hours without reporting to the Principal next day.

Students will be visited bi-weekly by representatives of the Principal.

No student can honorably discontinue attendance without a written release from the Principal.

All peasons having complaints against any student should report the same. while the respective student is still in attendance; as after his release. no attention will be paid to such charges.

MONITORIAL ORGANIZATION.

Monitors are appointed for Department and Organizations, and Seniors for Classes at the opening of each te n.

Daily records are kept by the students; weekly records by the respective seniors; term records stating the students full standing in the Academy are sent to the parents or guardians at the close of each term.

AUTHORITIES OF THE ACADEMY,

IRA N. HINCKLEY, President.
JOS. V. ROBISON.
T. C. CALLISTER.
D. R, STEVENS.
JOS. S. BLACK.

ALMA GREENWOOD, Principal.

By order of the Board,

C. ANDERSON, Secretary.

UPB